

MEET THE TEACHER

About Me

Hi, I'm Dayna Wolfe, and I've been teaching preschool for 23 years—17 of those right here at The Heights. I'm originally from Pennsylvania but consider myself a Texan! I've loved bringing my passion for early childhood education into the classroom every day where your child will feel safe and loved. I've been married to my husband, Chris, for 31 years, and we are blessed with four wonderful children: Wesley (married to Zoe), Hannah, Hayley, and Landin. When I'm not in the classroom, I enjoy spending time with my family, taking walks, reading, shopping, and cheering on Penn State football and the San Antonio Spurs during basketball season.
